

BUSINESS OPERATIONS MANAGEMENT

Hire The Best

Our co-op students are prepared to work in all types of service or manufacturing businesses. They have the skills to keep a high level of productivity in purchasing, inventory management, production planning and control, traffic and transportation, industrial engineering, quality assurance and supervision.

Some Assignments Include

- Production Planning or Scheduling
- Inventory Management
- Expediting Materials
- Quality Assurance
- Productivity Studies

Program Outline

Sept. – Dec.	Jan. – April	May – Aug.	Sept. – Dec.	Jan. – April	May – Aug.	Sept. – Dec.	Jan. – April	May – Aug.	Sept. – Dec.
Semester 1	Semester 2	Vacation	Semester 3	Co-op Work Term 1	Semester 4	Co-op Work Term 2	Semester 5	Co-op Work Term 3	Semester 6
Critical Business Practices Introduction to Micro-computer Applications Software Introduction to Canadian Business Operations Management Reading and Writing Prose	Organizational Behaviour Intermediate Micro-computer Applications Software Mathematics of Finance Marketing Approaches to Literature		Financial Accounting 1 Production Planning and Control Purchasing and Value Analysis Productivity: Standards and Measures Employment Preplacement General Education Elective		Quantitative Methods 1 Principles of Economics Introduction to CAD and CAD/CAM Project Management for Business Enterprise Resource Planning Introduction to Robotics		Business Presentations Materials Management Supply Chain Management Quality Assurance General Education Elective		Advanced Operations Management Business Law Business Policy Integrated Logistics Management Project Communication & Facilitation

